Representation Categories

Haus of Taylor Gallery features two categories of artists represented within our space:

Established Artists

Artists invited by the Gallery directly based on their established professional reputation or past collaborations will forego the juried selection process. If invited or represented already, their works will be immediately accepted for exhibition.

Juried Selection Process

Emerging or independent artists who wish to display their work at Haus of Taylor and are not directly invited to exhibit their art will undergo a juried selection process. Passed only by a discerning panel of curators, your inclusion ensures a collaborative effort to elevate your piece amongst our artisan-level offerings.

Artist Instructions and Guidelines

Artists may submit portfolio works in person or a digital portfolio, including high-resolution images of at least six recent works. Each image should include dimensions, medium, and descriptions.

A biography or CV showcasing noteworthy exhibitions, achievements, or accolades is required.

Review by Curatorial Team

Our expert curatorial panel reviews all submissions. Criteria include originality, technical mastery, conceptual depth, and alignment with the Haus of Taylor aesthetic. This process ensures that only pieces reflecting artistry and exclusivity are selected.

Communication of Selection Results

The artists will be notified of the jury's decision within seven days. Works accepted into the Gallery will be subject to this Agreement's terms and conditions.

1. Agency and Purpose

The Gallery agrees to act solely as the Artist's agent to display and attempt to sell the consigned artwork located on its premises and through its promotional efforts. This Agreement does not create an employer-employee or partnership relationship.

2. Warranty

The Artist warrants that they are the sole creator of the artwork being consigned and holds all rights, titles, and interests. The Artist guarantees that the work does not infringe upon anyone else's intellectual property rights.

3. Consignment of Artwork

The Artist consigns the listed artwork to the Gallery for display and sale, subject to the terms below. The Gallery reserves the right to select which pieces will be exhibited, the duration of display, and how the work will be displayed. Additionally, the Gallery reserves the right to determine the quantity and selection of art consigned due to limited space. All consigned artwork must meet the following conditions to be eligible for display at the Gallery:

Artwork intended for hanging must include wire or sawtooth hangers.

Unframed work must have finished edges consistent with the primary medium.

Unframed, matted work must be protected with a plastic sleeve provided by the Artist.

Cards must be enclosed in protective sleeves provided by the Artist.

Artwork deemed obscene or inappropriate by Gallery management will not be accepted.

4. Pricing and Commission

The Artist and Gallery agree that the retail price of each consigned artwork will be set upon mutual Agreement upon delivery to the Gallery. The Gallery will retain a commission of 30% for any artwork sold. The remaining 70% of the retail price will be paid to the Artist.

No fees will be charged to the Artist for consigning their work at the Gallery. Payment to the Artist will be made by check within seven (7) days of the sale of any artwork.

5. Duration of Consignment and Pick-Up Policy

The consigned artwork will be displayed at the Gallery for ninety (90) days from entering into the Gallery's inventory.

Any unsold artwork must be picked up by the Artist within thirty (30) days after the end of the consignment period.

The Artist is responsible for keeping track of their consignment's expiration date. Unclaimed artwork not picked up by the Artist within the thirty (30) day window after the consignment period will become the property of The Haus of Taylor Fine Art Gallery.

6. Marketing and Promotion

During the consignment period, the Gallery retains the exclusive right to market, promote, and exhibit the Artist's work. This includes, but is not limited to, website features, social media promotions, email campaigns, participation in promotional events, and written advertising.

7. Responsibility for Loss or Damage

The Haus of Taylor Fine Art Gallery will not be held liable for any damage, theft, or loss of the consigned artwork during the consignment period. Artists are encouraged to carry their insurance coverage for their artwork if desired.

8. Terms of Termination

Either party may terminate this Agreement with three (3) days' written notice. Any modification or addition to this Agreement must be submitted in writing and signed by both parties.

9. Sales Tax

The Gallery will collect and remit all applicable sales tax under the Commonwealth of Virginia on all consigned artwork sold.
